

MOST ELEGANT AND POPULAR PERIODICAL IN THE WORLD.

Not competition, defeat!

GREHAM'S MAGAZINE FOR 1845.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR NEW SUBSCRIBERS!

GREHAM'S AMERICAN MONTHLY MAGAZINE, for 1845, will commence a new volume, December 10th, 1844, with the January number. Its long and universally successful career, from its commencement until the present time, when it has a circulation EXCEEDING FIFTY THOUSANDS any other magazine in the country, is perhaps as good an evidence of its great and increasing merit as the publisher has it in his power to offer. To his old subscribers, he trusts no assurance is necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. The engagement, permanently, during the past year, of such men as RYAN, COOPER, PAULDING, LONGFELLOW, LOFFMAN, NEAL, MANCER, etc., of high reputation in the literary world, as regular contributors, in addition to a previous list, embracing the first names in the nation, is a sufficient guarantee that the work will continue to be the principal medium of communication between THE BEST AUTHORS AND THE PUBLIC.

Greham's Magazine has been, from its establishment, more than any other, the favorite periodical of the people of the United States. Though its plan does not entirely exclude articles of the most important character, such as have raised Blackwood and some other foreign journals to their high influence and reputation, its pages are principally devoted to what is usually termed light literature. It is distinguished from other publications of similar aims by the literary and artistic merit of its contents. While those of other works are unknown or anonymous, the contributors to this are the most eminent authors of our age and country; the very creators, founders of our NATIONAL LITERATURE, specially is it celebrated as containing the choicest productions of the finest essay writers of the time. Every number contains gems which may be appreciated with pride by the six, as vindicating their intellectual eminence. It may safely be asserted, that Greham's Magazine has regularly engaged a better corps of writers than any other magazine; that since its establishment it has been the pioneer in magazine literature; and that the contributors of "Greham" have, by their able contributions, given a HIGHER NATIONAL CHARACTER to periodical literature in the United States than it ever before possessed. With such a list of writers as our pages exhibit, we may challenge the criticism of Europe. There is no magazine abroad that presents any thing like such an array of eminent writers as James Fenimore Cooper, W. C. Bryant, Hon. James K. Paulding, R. H. Dana, H. W. Longfellow, Nathaniel Hawthorne, J. C. Neal, Henry W. Herbert, James Russell Lowell, Charles Fenno Hoffman, Hon. R. T. Conrad, H. T. Tuckerman, Alfred B. Street, etc.

Mrs. Amelia B. Welby, Miss Seagwick, Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. Mary Clavers, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. Crooks, Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Sara Smith, Mrs. Annan, Mrs. Nicholas, Mrs. Pierson, Mrs. Worthington, Miss Rand, Miss Harvey, and others.

Many names of like celebrity are necessarily omitted for want of space.

While the most able writers of the country are engaged as permanent contributors to Greham's Magazine, the Arts are not overlooked.

THE MOST ACCOMPLISHED AMERICAN ARTISTS

Employ their genius for our subscribers. The most elegant engravings that have ever appeared in America, have been given to the public in Greham's Magazine. We are now prepared to give the right direction to the talents of our artists, and are resolved that a national tone shall be strictly preserved in "Greham." Hereafter we shall place in the engraver's hands NONE BUT AMERICAN PICTURES. Our own country abounds with the FINEST SCENERY IN THE WORLD. It is full of HISTORICAL ASSOCIATIONS, of thrilling interest, and on every hand subjects start up, fit for the painter's pencil and the engraver's burin. Every patriotic sentiment urges the selection of national subjects for the pen and pencil, and we feel assured that the American public will sustain the enterprise.

VARIETY OF MAGNIFICENT ENGRAVINGS.

No magazine in the world has presented so great a variety of elegant engravings to its subscribers as Greham's. Every branch of art is brought into requisition, and every NOVELTY IN SCENERY, or incident in AMERICAN HISTORY, that can interest or instruct the reader is seized upon by the artists in our employ. Among the style to be put forth in our new volume, for 1845, we shall enumerate the following:

AMERICAN BATTLE-GROUNDS.

Giving correct pictures, taken on the spot, of the places in which the most remarkable battles have been fought. These engravings will be of the highest order of art; and we may mention, that in order to insure a permanency in the elegance for which these designs have already become celebrated, we have ENGAGED MR. SMILLIE FOR THREE YEARS, ON AMERICAN SCENES AND INCIDENTS.

PREMIUM PICTURES AND ENGRAVINGS

In addition to this, we have entered into a permanent engagement with the house of Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, of New York, for a supply of most exquisite pictures, among which we may mention a series of elegant

INDIAN AND PRAIRIE SCENES.

Got up in most magnificent style, and representing, from sketches taken from nature, the most beautiful SCENERY OF OUR WESTERN COUNTRY. Our Southern Views, engraved by the same house, which have become so widely popular, will also be continued. The exquisite female heads engraved by this firm—among which we may instance that of Mrs. Stephens, which has never been equalled in this country—will be further supplied by Messrs R. W. & H., whose facilities and talents, in their line of art, are unrivaled in the world. We may safely say that we have ALL THE BEST ARTISTS EMPLOYED ON "GREHAM."

OUR PORTRAIT GALLERY.

Occupies the time of several accomplished artists, among whom are Welch & Walter, G. Parker, and others.

PORTRAITS OF AUTHORS

Is a feature originated by the proprietor of Greham, and successfully carried out. We defy any competition in this branch.

SARTAIN'S ELEGANT MEZZOTINTS.

Mr. Sartain will furnish us, for the New Volume, a series of his magnificent mezzotints. One will appear in January. We need not say to the readers of Greham, that these brilliant pictures excel any mezzotints.

FLOWERS COLORED FROM NATURE.

Truthfully drawn by an able artist, to take a place in a department, got up expressly for the ladies, for the New Volume, embracing THE LATEST FASHION, NEW STYLE OF NEEDLE WORK, AND ORNAMENTAL WORK, &c., &c. With letters on topics connected with female interests, will also form a feature in the New Volume.

COMIC AND HUMEROUS SKETCHES.

Mr. J. C. Neal, E. A. Poe, H. H. Weld, and others, will furnish a series of amusing sketches, which will be handsomely illustrated by Croome, or Darley. We shall also have HITS AT FASHIONABLE LIFE IN LETTERS FROM ABROAD.

Written by F. J. Grund, Esq., Consul to Antwerp, who will also furnish us with the earliest literary intelligence, and short notices of new works, prior to their appearance here in the shape of reprints. This will give "Greham" a position to adjust the value of foreign works, before the purchaser here has been duped by puff's price for by interested publishers.

EDITORIAL AND CRITICAL DEPARTMENT.

The Editorial Department will continue to embrace notes on current literature, and reviews of all new American or foreign works of general interest or value. The criticisms of Greham's Magazine are acknowledged in all parts of the country to be superior in acumen, honesty and independence to those of any contemporaries. Greater scope will be given to this department of the work, and topics on all subjects likely to attract attention will be fearlessly discussed. In this department we shall give a chapter on FASHIONABLE GOSSIP each month, hitting off the follies of the fashionable world for the amusement of our lady readers; and, for the gentlemen, FRANK FORESTER has promised us HINTS ON SPORTS AND PASTIMES, a feature which we have no doubt will be of interest to many thousands of our readers. We have also made arrangements for a large supply of Original Music, with eminent composers, so that we shall present next volume A MOST AMPLE MUSIC DEPARTMENT, suited to the wants of a very large number of ladies, and of value, in itself, equal to the subscription to "Greham."

ONE PARAGRAPH MORE.

IMPORTANT—READ IT!
We say now to all magazine readers, "COME UP HIGHER!" Don't be deceived into the purchase, for a whole year, of tawdry literature, and old-fashioned engravings. Examine for yourselves! and when you have found the BEST MAGAZINE, subscribe for your wife, your sweet-heart, yourself, or child. You will not then blush for the contrast with your neighbors' taste. You will find "THE BEST THE CHEAPEST!" and our word for it, that which COSTS THE PUBLISHER THE MOST MONEY, WHICH IS MOST ELEGANT, ORIGINAL, POPULAR, AND DESIRABLE, will be found to be GREHAM'S. It can be had by clubs for $2, and it is cheaper than any other publisher, with less than 30,000 subscribers, can furnish so elegant a work.

TERMS.

Single Copies, $3 per annum in advance.
Club of 5 " " " " " $10 "
" 11 " " " " " $20 "

Any Postmaster, or other person, wishing to see a copy, as a specimen, will be furnished by addressing the publisher, post paid. Editors copying will be entitled to an exchange for one year. GEORGE F. GREHAM, No 98 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER.

AS now been established ten years, during which it has overcome many and great objects; and attained a wide circulation and a very high character. The efforts of the present editor will be strenuously directed, not only to the preservation of its ancient fame, but also to its constant improvement. In this, the flattering testimonials he has received during the last twelve months, led him to believe that he has already succeeded.

The contributors are numerous, embracing professional and amateur writers of the first distinction. Great expense is incurred and great pains are taken to secure an abundant supply of interesting and instructive matter.

Regular contributors—Judge B. Tucker, C. B. Hayden, Nasus, authors of "The Vow," "Pretension," &c.; L. V., author of "The Prize Tale," &c.; Virginia, Lieut. M. F. Maury, U. S. N., Washington. W. Gilmore Simms, LL. D., George Frederick Holmes, S. Carolina. Mrs. Jane T. Worthington, Ohio. Mrs. Mary E. Hewitt, N. York; E. R. Hale, Illinois. William W. Andrews, U. S. Consul, Malta. H. P. Hirst, Philadelphia. Occasional contributors—President Thomas B. Dew, Professor George Tucker, J. E. D., author of the History of an Adventurer, and "Sequel;" Lucian Minor, W. B. U. S. Charge, Italy; W. M. U. S. Charge, S. A. Virginia. Dr. S. H. Dickson, E. D., South Carolina. L. J. Cist, Ohio; and many others, in the South and in nearly every State in the Union; some, whose veils we would gladly remove.

The contents will be exceedingly varied, embracing Reviews, Tales, Novels, Poems, Essays, Travels, Sketches, Biography, History, Popular Science, Papers on the Navy, Army, and other National interests, Literary Intelligence, Foreign and Domestic, and Notices of New York. Selections of merit will occasionally be inserted.

The leading principle is the promotion of a pure Native Literature, and of a loved National Spirit. With this view the following premiums are offered:
For the best paper on the present state of American Letters, the prospect and means of their improvement, $50 00
The best Review of the works of some native Prose Writer, 35 00
The best Review of some native Poet, 35 00
The best original Tale, 35 00
The best original Poem, 35 00

Many improvements will be introduced with a new volume, and the style rendered still more excellent. As it aspires to be the Literary organ of the South and West—it is expected that these (and the North and East also) will liberally encourage it—as such, it congratulates the West on the success of their Naval Depot—a work of its own creation.

The Messenger contains on an average sixty-four pages, a number, sixteen pages more than most of our magazines; and is published monthly at $5 per annum—five copies for twenty dollars. If the friends of the cause and agents exert themselves, it will soon be visiting every month, at least twenty thousand staunch subscribers.
B. B. MINOR, Editor and Proprietor.
